

And having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke. We also believe, and therefore speak. (2 Corinthians 4:13)	For the momentary lightness of our tribulation, works for us an exceedingly excessive and eternal weight of Glory; While we look, not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal. (2 Corinthians 4:17-18)	Now faith is the basis of things hoped for, the proof of things not seen. (Hebrews 11:1)
By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still speaks. (Hebrews 11:4)	By faith Enoch was translated so that he did not see death, and was not found because God had translated him; for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. (Hebrews 11:5)	But without faith it is impossible to please God. For it is necessary for him who comes to God to believe that he is, and that he becomes a rewarder to those who diligently seek him. (Hebrews 11:6)
By faith Noah, having been warned by God of things not seen yet, having moved with fear, prepared an ark for the salvation of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness according to faith. (Hebrews 11:7)	By faith Abraham, being called, obeyed to go out into the place which he was about to receive for an inheritance, and went out, not knowing where he was going. (Hebrews 11:8)	By faith also Sarah herself received power for conception of seed, and gave birth when she was past the age, since she esteemed him faithful who promised. (Hebrews 11:11)
