

By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son. (Hebrews 11:17)	By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; rather having chosen to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to have the temporary pleasures of sin. (Hebrews 11:24)	By faith they passed through the red sea, as through dry land, of which the Egyptians, trying to do so were drowned. (Hebrews 11:29)
By faith, Rahab the harlot did not perish with those who did not obey, when she had received the spies with peace. (Hebrews 11:31)	And all these, having borne witness through faith, did not receive the promise; God having foreseen something better for us, that they should not be made perfect without us. (Hebrews 11:39-40)	Knowing this, that the testing of your faith produces endurance. (James 1:3)
But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting. For he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. (James 1:6)	Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him? (James 2:5)	What does it profit, my brothers, though a man says he has faith, and does not have works? Can faith save him? (James 2:14)
