

Yes, a man may say, You have faith, and I have works: show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. (James 2:18)	But will you know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? (James 2:20)	Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Do you see how faith worked together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? (James 2:21-22)
You see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. (James 2:24)	For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. (James 2:26)	Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the Devil, and he will flee from you. (James 4:7)
And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. (James 5:15)	Who are being kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. (1 Peter 1:5)	That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perishes, though it is tried with fire, might be found to praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: (1 Peter 1:7)
