

By which also you are being saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain. (1 Corinthians 15:2)	And whether we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, being worked in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. (2 Corinthians 1:6)	For we are to God a sweet taste of Christ, in those who are being saved, and in those who are perishing: (2 Corinthians 2:15)
For he says, I heard you in an accepted time, and in the day of salvation I helped you: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. (2 Corinthians 6:2)	For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, not to be regretted: but the sorrow of the world works death. (2 Corinthians 7:10)	In whom you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after you believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, (Ephesians 1:13)
Even when we were dead in sins, he made us alive together with Christ, [by grace you have been saved (or are being saved;)] (Ephesians 2:5)	For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that is not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; Not of works lest anyone should boast. (Ephesians 2:8-9)	For I know that this shall turn out to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, (Philippians 1:19)
