

And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. (Philippians 1:28)	Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. (Philippians 2:12)	And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in those who are perishing; because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. (2 Thessalonians 2:10)
The word is faithful, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. (1 Timothy 1:15)	Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (1 Timothy 2:4)	Take heed to yourself, and to the teaching; continue in them: for in doing this you shall both save yourself, and those who hear you. (1 Timothy 4:16)
Who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, (2 Timothy 1:9)	Therefore I endure all things because of the elect, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. (2 Timothy 2:10)	For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. Instructing us that, having denied ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in the present age. (Titus 2:11-12)
