

Not by works which we have done in righteousness, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit. (Titus 3:5)	How shall we escape, if we have neglected so great salvation; which, having received originally spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard him. (Hebrews 2:3)	For it was fitting for him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the leader of their salvation perfect through sufferings. (Hebrews 2:10)
And having been made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all those who obey him. (Hebrews 5:9)	Therefore he is able also to save to the utmost those who come to God by him, seeing he ever lives to make intercession for them. (Hebrews 7:25)	So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to those who look for him he shall appear the second time without sin for salvation. (Hebrews 9:28)
Therefore, having laid aside all filthiness and overflow of wickedness, receive with meekness the in-growing word, which is able to save your souls. (James 1:21)	What does it profit, my brothers, though a man says he has faith, and does not have works? can faith save him? (James 2:14)	Let him know, that he who converts the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins. (James 5:20)
